IT'S ALL COMING TOGETHER ~ OFFICIAL REGISTRATION OPEN ~

Hello again and welcome! This issue [#2] of our GFR newsletter finds us counting down the weeks to our very first Gallant Family Reunion for all descendants of Napoléon Gallant.

We have had a great response and many of those attending who've already pre-registered have also offered great ideas on planning various activities.

We're proud to announce also that our special guest speaker on Saturday August 8 will be Mr. Jean Bernard, the former Director/Archivist for the Centre for Acadian Research.

Mr. Bernard will be speaking about Michel Haché-Gallant and his descendants. As you are all aware Michel Hache-Gallant is ancestor to most Hachés and/or Gallants from the Maritimes. Our particular line is Michel Haché-Gallant / Jacques / Cyprien / Prospère / Sylvain / Napoléon.

We are looking forward to Mr. Bernard's informative talk .

Gallant Reunion website pages at The Gallant Family website have been updated and official registration is now open. You have the option of printing off a pdf or word document file to mail or you can conveniently submit your registration form on-line and make payment via our convenient PayPal secure site. The choice is up to you. If you have family members who don't have access to our website, please help spread the word to them by printing off the form and forwarding this info to them. Thanks!

Please note as well that there is a maximum number of people that The Parish Centre can hold so once we hit that number, we will not be able to accept any more registrations. So, if you're planning on being there in attendance for our first ever Napoléon Gallant Family Reunion, kindly submit your official registration soon.

For those pre-registered, we need you to register officially now to confirm your detailed information which may be provided along with payment.

REUNION ACTIVITIES

GOLFING

St. Felix Golf Course is a 9 hole course set in St. Felix, P.E.I. just 5 minutes from Tignish. The 2995 Yard Par 36 layout has tees at all levels for the beginner intermediate and pro.

FISHING

Casting your line in the deep blue sea will gain you a whole new appreciation for fresh seafood. You can set your sights on fresh mackerel or do battle with a big cod.

BEACHES

P.E.I. is surrounded by miles of sandy white beaches where you can swim, go clam digging or simply enjoy a walk as gentle waves lap upon the seashore.

BONFIRE

Enjoy our bonfire on a PEI beach as we toast marshmallows, have a sing-a-long, bid adieu and celebrate a great discovery weekend.

GALLANT FAMILY REUNION

Most of our arrangements have been completed now for our first big Family Reunion. The Tignish Parish Centre has been rented for the entire weekend of our reunion in case of inclement weather or as a place for attendees to gather if some don't want to fish, golf or go to the beach.

The Gallant Family website is also now fully updated and registration is officially open. With this April newsletter, we want to remind you also that if you wish to be entered into the Gallant Family Reunion booklet and haven't yet sent in your detailed information, please do so soon so as to avoid any disappointment.

And please send any photos that you have too as they are always welcome. Check out the fantastic photo on the right that was recently sent to us by Ellie Irving, the granddaughter of Clara Gallant.

NEEDED

We will need some help with setting up our Friday night displays and snacks buffet so any volunteers are welcomed. Saturday/Sunday card games and Sunday activities such as games, BBQ and bonfire also may require some assistance so again, help is appreciated.

BUS TOUR

For anyone registered who may be interested in taking a bus tour around on Saturday, we can arrange to rent a bus if enough people want to do that. There would be a small fee of $5 Cdn to cover rental.

T-SHIRT
LOGO

Our Reunion t-shirt logo is being created currently and will be revealed very soon on the Gallant Family Website.

So stay tuned.
